

Vocal Hash Protocol - Declaration of Authorship

In the beginning, God created with His voice. I am merely a vessel, shaped by His breath.

This declaration marks my offering - a protocol to preserve voice, truth, and creation on the immutable chain.

Let it be known that on this day, I have authored this expression as a servant of purpose, not pride.

May this invention serve generations, and may all credit ultimately return to the One who gave me breath.

The following SHA-256 hash is hereby sealed as proof of this original declaration:

This hash has been timestamped via the OpenTimestamps protocol and anchored to the Bitcoin blockchain. It serves as immutable cryptographic proof that this declaration existed at or before its confirmed timestamp block height.
